"Memorials in Georgia Marble – Eclipse Designs"

& Price List (at the end of this document)

Georgia Marble Company Tate, Georgia – circa 1920

This introduction of this catalog begins:

Georgia Marble – "The Stone of Everlasting Beauty"

"One of the truly beautiful customs of man – a practice as old as civilization – is the erection of a lasting memorial, symbolical of the eternal esteem and reverence for loved ones.

"Beauty of workmanship, design and material should be requisites of the memorial, last and only earthly gift that can be bestowed upon the dead.

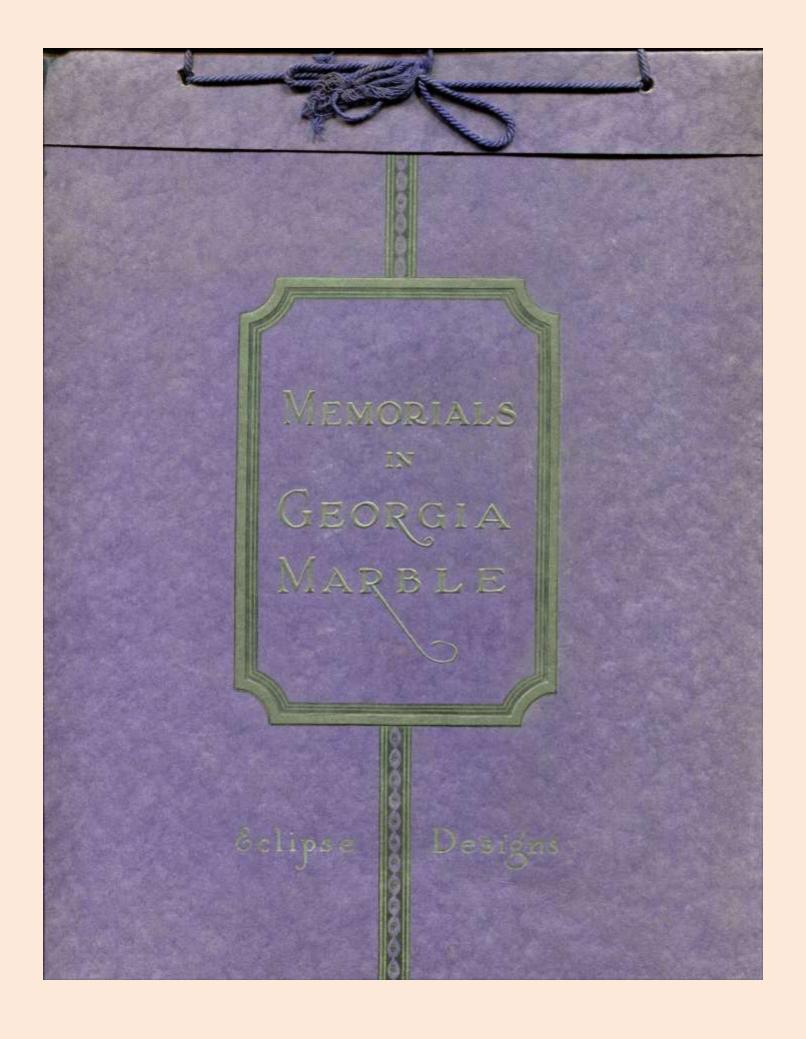

"The designs in this book are offered as suggestions for memorials of the better class, combining strength and durability with the symmetry, grace and beauty - a combination that makes for lasting satisfaction.

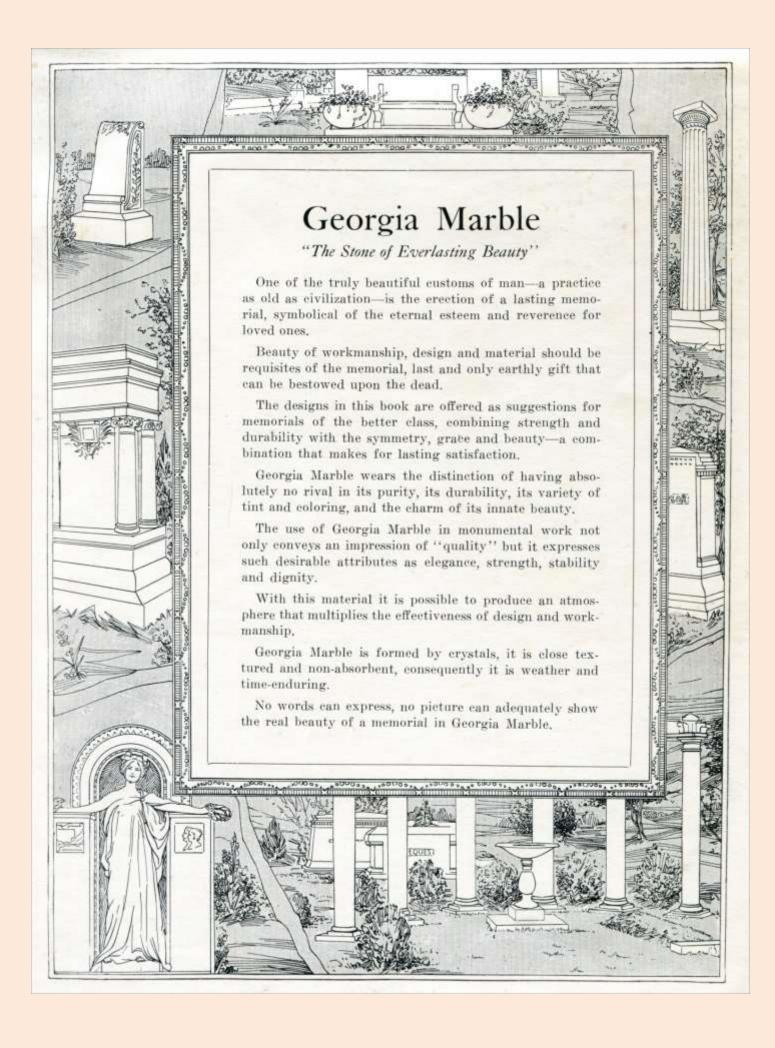

"Georgia Marble wears the distinction of having absolutely no rival in its purity, its durability, its variety of tint and coloring, and the charm of its innate beauty...."
